(United Press)

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—The European World of Thursday afternoon, under the headline "Wall Street Expulsion," declared that the capitalists on the stocks of a group of "international swindlers" against a board of "trustworthy" heads of the lower middle class and housewrecking capitalists. The declaration was based upon independent investigation.

The World asserted that it had read that "eighteen hundred men, partly all foreign born, were expelled, silent and well behaved," from the stock exchange, and that within a space of 15 minutes they were subjected to an amazing reversion of greed and industry, and the same

It did not charge the union with responsibility, but said it was the fault of individuals, possibly sympathizers. The article said the agents whom it named, who were killed, were sent to work was designed to expose not a nonworking job where, finally, a foreman and protégé of Philately, was working.

The article also said the bomb blast was driven by "a big and a little," but did not name the contents of the parcel. The clockwork was set for 12 p. m. The driver was detained and arrested, and then sent to the station, the delivery was to be made in the afternoon. It explained the driver's interest in the nature of the night and then suggested.

War Between Royal Labor Union

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The great war which raged between the members of the Royal Labor Union and the members of the Royal Labor Union, was the first of its kind in the history of the world. It was a war between the members of the Royal Labor Union of New York, according to a statement made by the members of the Royal Labor Union of New York.

Swedish Inventor of Moving Picture Camera, a Widely Traveled Man, Believes the Local Beach Best in World

Shows S. J. Peabody First Requisite
 Remarkable Picture of Beach Is Fine
 of Relative in Japan Camping Ground

"This I regard as the most attractive beach on the earth. I have made two trips around the world and think I know what other beaches are like," said Magnus Niel of Stockholm, Sweden, the inventor of moving picture cameras, who is here to spend his fourth season at the Daytona Beach hotel. "I came all the way from Sweden to spend another season here because I like it better than any other place I know of," continued Mr. Niel.

Rather an unusual incident occurred last Sunday after Mr. Niel and S. J. Peabody had enjoyed their dinner together. Mr. Niel was showing Mr. Peabody some pictures he had taken on his last trip around the world, and to the astonishment of Mr. Peabody he produced a picture of his nephew, Thomas Peabody, of North Manchester, Ind., which was taken in Japan.

Mr. Niel and E. H. Stansbury, formerly of Chicago, are fast friends, having been together here at the Daytona Beach hotel for the three past winters, and are just beginning their fourth. Mr. Stansbury, who is the friend in the opinion that this is the best beach he ever saw.

"I regard it as quite remarkable," said Mr. Stansbury, "that there has never been a death resulting from the 'flu' on this peninsula. Statistics show this is true."

As both Messrs. Niel and Stansbury are competent swimmers, they thoroughly enjoy each other's society. Mr. Niel has rented one of the cottages belonging to the Daytona Beach hotel property on the ocean front in which he has his laboratory. He lives, however, at the hotel.

MANY IMPROVEMENTS MADE AT BREAKERS BY MR. HUNT

W. D. Hunt, proprietor of the Breakers hotel, is already for the winter crowds. He has completely redecorated his dining room and kitchen and installed therein many improvements. He has removed all of the large tables seating eight people in their place has only four and two seat tables. He is employing no colored help in his dining room, having white girls only. He has made his bath house very attractive, has it lighted every day and keeps it open constantly.

REINHARTER - BARNHART WEDDING WEDNESDAY NIGHT
 At 7:30 Wednesday evening, November 14, 1928, at the home of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Barnhart of Magnolia avenue and George street, Miss Lillie Helene Barnhart of Daytona, Fla., and Mr. Elmer Louis Reinhardt of Pittsburgh, Pa., were united in marriage by Rev. Holmes Rightmeyer.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and was attended by her sister, Mrs. Gus Bergstrom of Pittsburgh, Pa., and her brother, David R. Barnhart of Daytona as best man. The bride's gown being white, and the bride's train being white. The bride's train being white. The bride's train being white.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Barnhart, parents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Gus Bergstrom and family of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Leonard and family of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. A. Fleming of Daytona Beach, Fla.; Frank O'Donnell of Pittsburgh, Pa.; and Mr. and Mrs. David R. Barnhart and family of Daytona, Fla.

DEMOCRATS AND REPUBLICANS UNITED
 It is not easy to get all shades of political opinion together, but here is one project which does unite all with perhaps the possible exception of the extreme Socialists and Bolsheviks. Republicans and Democrats alike have in mind the children. To Sunday school, but there is one thing better than sending them and that is taking them, and staying with them throughout the session. There is a place provided by every well regulated Sunday school for father and mother and every member of the family from the youngest to the oldest. Sunday, Nov. 18, is "Whole Family Day" in the Sunday school, and every family in the "Triple Cities" ought to be in some Sunday school on that day. Not just represented by some one or two members, but the whole family present. You owe it to your family and yourself to make a good record. Keep the family circle complete and unbroken. What! Some members of your family have passed over? Well, listen! They will be there too in spirit. If all the rest of the family is present. Remember the date of "Whole Family Day," Sunday, November 18. That's it. In every Sunday school in Volusia county, Plan for it.

FORMER SECRETARY OF STATE LANSING EXPECTED AGAIN AT PRINCESS ISSENA

Former United States Secretary of State Robert Lansing, Mrs. Lansing and party are expected to spend at least several weeks at the Princess Issema hotel in Seabreeze during February, as they did last season. Mr. Lansing having made arrangements last season before leaving for his current year. Manager Henry W. Haynes of the Princess Issema, who recently arrived to prepare for the opening of his hotel, states that he is in correspondence at this time with Mr. Lansing regarding plans for reservations for his party.

The Princess Issema will be opened three weeks from today, December 19. Mr. Haynes having a number of reservations booked for that date, but parties which will spend the entire season here.

The hotel is being renovated, and bricked up by painting the interior, and getting in shape for the biggest season in the history of the large Seabreeze hotel.

Building a Bungalow
 Manager Haynes is at this time having constructed, in his miniature bungalow city at the corner of the hotel, another complete and modern bungalow. Contractor James Nestoroff is doing the work of construction. The new bungalow will contain three sleeping chambers, several baths, sun parlor, kitchen and sleeping porch, making it most complete in every way.

The first arrival of the year are Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Denton of Pittsfield, Mass., who have spent many seasons past at the Princess Issema. They who last year went to California for the winter. They are occupying one of the hotel bungalows, and intend to spend three winter seasons here.

Chas. L. Wetherby and family are expected from New York City to occupy another of the hotel bungalows. Mr. Wetherby has been one of the large hotel owners in New York City, having recently disposed of the Gotham hotel of that city. They will spend the season at the Princess Issema.

Manager Haynes, from bookings made at this time, predicts the same condition as was so evident last year, the necessity of having to turn away many hundreds of guests during the season.

PENINSULA LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald J. Hallford are here from Plainfield, N. J.

Silas S. Peirson, Winter Resident Here, Is Very Ill

Believes a White Republican Party Coming in Georgia

Mr. Peirson, of Newark, N. Y., and winter resident of Seabreeze, is at the post 15 house, is seriously ill at the northern house, according to information supplied today by Charles F. Barnhart, a neighbor for many years and friend of the family.

Mr. Peirson is the founder and was for many years president of the First National bank of Newark. His son, R. V. Peirson, now president of that bank at this time, has taken leave of his father.

Mr. Peirson has been ill all summer. In fact, he has been bedridden for some months, and his wife states that he does not believe his father will be able to come to Seabreeze before winter. Mr. Peirson, Sr., has also been seriously ill this summer, but is recovered.

Another son, R. Ray Peirson, who is associated in the First National bank at Newark, has a home on Pennsylvania drive in Seabreeze.

Friends of Silas Peirson will regret that 22 months will pass, and that the Seabreeze bungalow this year and will hope for a speedy recovery.

Wesley Drayton and Joe Green arrived Thursday evening from Seabreeze, Pa., and are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Loomis, on Pennsylvania drive. Mr. Green will be employed with R. B. Bogue's pharmacy this afternoon.

"SWAPPING WIVES" LEADS TO KILLING

(International News Service.)
 GREENEY, Colo., Nov. 12.—"Swapping wives" by two Mexican men and their wives near Montezuma, Colo., resulted in the death of E. Aguilera, when John Rodriguez, a local man, shot him dead.

Several weeks ago Aguilera and Rodriguez "swapped wives."

Rodriguez shot at the Aguilera farm recently and demanded the return of his wife, Aguilera refused, and during a quarrel that ensued, Rodriguez shot and killed Aguilera. Rodriguez was shot and killed by a local man.

Elks and Masons Present Flags to American Legion

Because of the heavy downpour of rain during Thursday afternoon, the presentation of colors to the Russell C. Warner post, American Legion was combined with the dancing party given by the Legion as the Casino Burgoyne in the evening, the addresses and presentation being most impressive.

S. C. Archibald first presented the American Legion post with a beautiful silk flag in the name of the Daytona Lodge H. P. O. E. No. 1141. The flag staff is surmounted by a silver eagle, and will make a decided addition to the decorations of the new club rooms of the American Legion post on North Beach street.

Mr. Archibald, in presenting, the flag, which was received in the name of the local Post Commander, Clarence Bennett, delivered a most inspiring address and tribute to the flag, rehearsing the valor of the American soldiers leading up to the signing of the Armistice two years ago Thursday.

Following the presentation of the American flag to the Russell C. Warner Post by Mr. Archibald, Dr. Addison O'Neill, the Master of Halifax Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons, in behalf of the lodge, presented the Post with the Post flag. He addressed the company present in the following well chosen words and sentiments:

"Officers and members of Russell C. Warner Post of the American Legion, ladies and gentlemen: "What are flags? Flags are emblematical representations of complex ideas. National flags symbolize countries and all that those countries represent to themselves and to the rest of the world. The Stars and Stripes represents the United States of America, its inception, its history, its Constitution, its laws, its army, its navy, its prestige, its people, its customs, its ideals—the sum total of everything that goes to make up our country; a composite picture including the lesser as well as the greater elements that comprise our national being.

"To us, the Stars and Stripes mean democracy, using the term in the broad sense of government by the people. Older democracies did not permit slaves or women to vote. The United States has no slaves, and its women vote, thus becoming a true representative democracy of which we may justly be proud. Bearing this thought in mind, let us turn for a few minutes to this other emblem, the Departmental or Post flag.

"What picture does it bring to your minds? Does it represent anything beyond the inscription on its face? Is it also an emblem of democracy? Decidedly not for it represents not only an active participation in a world war for democracy, that democracy might not perish from the earth, but is a perpetual memorial of that participation, and the supreme sacrifices it involved.

"The naming of this Post after one of our very own home boys, instead of some great general or renowned hero, was an act of mention thoroughly in harmony with the trend of the times. The war has not been over long enough for you to appreciate fully the importance of this Post, in 15 or 20 years the true perspective will begin to appear and the value and relation of this Post to many of your best interests will become manifest.

"The H. P. O. E. is a strictly American order, pledged to support the Constitution, laws and flag of our country. As an exponent of American democracy, it is eminently fitting, then, that the Elks should present this Post with its American flag.

"The Masonic fraternity is a world-wide order, never at variance with the highest ideals of democracy anywhere on this globe. It is an ancient and honorable institution, ancient as having existed from time immemorial and honorable as tending to every particular so to render all men who will be comfortable to its precepts."

"Nearly 50 of the 56 signers of the Declaration of Independence were Masons. George Washington was M. W. G. M. of Virginia, as was Benjamin Franklin of Pennsylvania. Our French liberator, Lafayette, was made a Mason by Washington himself at Morristown, N. J., in Military Lodge No. 13.

"Trace, for instance, the emergence of Italy, France and Portugal from autocracy to democracy and you will discover one of the underlying factors in these great internal changes to be the Masonic fraternity.

"Daytona Lodge No. 1141, H. P. O. E., through this beautiful Stars and Stripes, has linked you and dedicated you to the highest ideals of American democracy.

"It is now my sincere pleasure, on behalf of Halifax Lodge No. 51, Free and Accepted Masons, to present you

Congregational Church Closes Sessions Here

The twenty-sixth annual meeting of the East Coast Association of the Congregational Churches of Florida came to a close this noon, after a most successful session, meetings having been held Thursday afternoon and evening and this morning, a majority of the pastors and laymen in attendance departing for their respective homes this afternoon.

The principal address of Thursday evening was delivered by Rev. W. Knighton Bloem, D. D., secretary of the Congregational Church Extension society, while Rev. Charles F. Goss, D. C., of Seabreeze and Rev. William H. Pound of New Smyrna presided at the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

This morning Rev. George B. Spaulding of Orange City delivered an address, the greater part of today's session being devoted to business reports and three minute reports.

Rev. W. L. Lewis, pastor of the local Congregational church, under whose auspices the convention was held, received great praise for the able manner in which he conducted the association meetings here.

"WELL, OLD MAN, HOW ARE YOU?"

If Your Blood is Rich and Red, You Say, "Fine."

ENTHUSIASM IS RED-BLOODED
Try Pepto-Mangan if You Feel Weak and Look Pale.

Sometimes you are almost down and out. You know you are not really sick, but you have a petered-out feeling. You eat little. You drag along in the morning you look at your face in the mirror. You feel years older when you see how pale and haggard you are.

It is your blood. It needs red corpuscles. Instead of poking along half sick, why don't you try taking Pepto-Mangan, the blood tonic? It has just the ingredients weak blood needs. With red blood your energy and enthusiasm return. You eat better. You tackle work and achieve.

Pepto-Mangan is widely and heartily endorsed by physicians. It is effective and easy to take. It is sold in both liquid and tablet form. The medicinal properties are identical.

Sold at any drug store. But be sure to get the genuine Pepto-Mangan—"Gude's." Ask for it by the name and be sure the full name, "Gude's Pepto-Mangan," is on the package. (Ad.)
